How Planning Is Accomplished

Every community plans. Planning is done consciously as well as unconsciously. The lack of formal plan usually indicates that the community is merely planning on a day-by-day, crisis-to-crisis basis, while the community with a long term comprehensive plan attempts to foresee its problems and solve them before they reach crisis proportions.

State enabling statutes generally provide for the appointment of a planning commission. This commission, composed of citizens of the community, serves in an advisory capacity to the governing body. The question may arise as to why a planning commission is necessary when such other city and township functions as police or fire protection are handled directly by a department head responsible to the chief executive officer. One answer is that planning touches on the lives and activities of nearly every citizen of a community not only today but next year and ten years from now. It is very desirable, therefore, to have as much citizen participation in the planning process as is practical. Even when the services of professional planners are utilized, it is highly desirable to test their ideas and proposals against the common sense judgment and knowledge of local conditions possessed by lay members of a planning commission.

This can be accomplished, in part, through the creation of a planning commission with membership representing various community interests.

Second, planning is a continuous, long-term process and the results of current decisions may not be evident for several years. An active planning commission, the terms of whose members seldom coincide with the terms of members of the City Council, or Township Board, makes possible a certain degree of continuity on planning though not always present otherwise.

Then, too, most governing boards are swamped with the day-to-day routine of city business, public hearings, complaints, reports of various kinds, meetings, and so on. In addition, most council members have their own businesses or occupations to look after and occupy their elective offices as a public service. There is a physical limit to the amount of time they can devote to city or township government. For this reason it is sometimes more difficult for a mayor, city council, township supervisor or board member to find the time to consider long term needs. The planning commission, not so involved in other details of city or township business, is in a position to concentrate on the long range aspects of municipal and area problems, and to lend its help to the sometimes harassed municipal officials.

The City of Grayling-Township of Grayling Planning Commission decided early that there was a need to employ consultants and entered upon an agreement with Williams & Works, engineering consultants of Grand Rapids.

NEXT WEEK—Elements of the comprehensive plan.

Split In Week's Play

Roscommon Bucks Here Tuesday, Charlevoix On Friday Night

The Grayling Vikings will play two games this week on their home floor after winning one here last Tuesday and dropping a conference contest at Gaylord last Friday.

In conference action last Tuesday, Pellston stopped Charlevoix 62 to 48, Grayling dumped Mancelona 71 to 53, Gaylord overpowered East Jordan 84 to 75 and Harbor Springs outlasted Boyne City 30 to 27. Friday night, the Vikings were dumped 84 to 41 by Gaylord, Pellston continued their winning streak 89 to 53 over Harbor Springs, East Jordan halted Mancelona 75 to 49 and Charlevoix edged Boyne City 51 to 50.

Several loop teams have non-conference frays this Tuesday but on Friday night, Grayling will host Charlevoix, Pellston will be at Boyne, Gaylord at Mancelona and East Jordan at Harbor Springs. Grayling will entertain the Roscommon Bucks here Tuesday.

Last Tuesday night, Grayling raved to a 24 to 9 first period bulge and were never headed. Steve DuBois with 19, Pat Thompson with 17, Terry Wright with 14 and John Sorenson with 12 were all in the double figures for Grayling. Dave Southwell with 20 was high for the Ironmen.

State Treasurer Issues 1964 County Audit

Allison Green, State Treasurer, released the calendar year 1964 audit report of the accounts and records of Crawford County. This report is submitted to the board of supervisors under the requirements of the Uniform Accounting Act, and is intended to be used as a guide to more uniform and improved accounting systems and records. Mr. Green stated that his department stands ready to assist in any way to help improve accounting procedures for the county.

Mr. Green directed the attention of the Board of Supervisors to various matters involving general county operations, including county officers' bonds and salaries, justices of the peace and the use of county supplies, for city ordinance cases, the financial condition of the county, a bank loan obtained without proper legal authority, an illegal contractual agreement and an improper time purchase of equipment, required procedures for the listing and licensing of dogs, amounts due the county on county jail prisoners from other units of government, personal property tax procedures, and an improper "blanket check" issued to the County Library Board.

The State Treasurer also directed attention to certain matters involving the offices of the County Sheriff, County Library Board, Social Welfare Board, and especially to the records, accounts and vouchers of the County Road Commission.

All audit exceptions, along with suggested changes, were referred to the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and the various department heads involved, with a request for a report to Mr. Green on the action taken.

THREE MORE FILE FOR C. C. BOARD

Basil Godbold, Superintendent of the Intermediate School District of Crawford, Ogemaw, Oscoda and Roscommon counties, has announced three new candidates for the Board of Trustees of the Community College to be voted upon in those counties on March 6.

Norval Stephan graduated from Grayling High School in 1927, attended Central Michigan College for one year, then enrolled for a short course at Michigan State University. Presently Mr. Stephan is pastor of the R.L.D.S. Church in addition to managing Club Thunderbird on the AuSable. He has been active as an Intermediate School Board member, on executive committee of the Grayling Grange and his past public offices include 6 years as Justice of the Peace and the County Board of Review. Mr. Stephan is married and the father of two children.

Robert F. Bovee has lived in Grayling serving as a member of the High School teaching staff for the past 17 years. He received his B.S. Degree from Central Michigan College in 1949. Since that time he has attended the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Rensselaer Poly Tech. Troy, N. Y., and in 1950 he received his M. A. Degree from Central Michigan University. Mr. Bovee has served as President and Secretary of the Grayling Kiwanis

Times Have Changed

Need for a Community College is evident in our world today because of the high priority that is put on education.

Thirty years ago, nearly 50% of the jobs available needed unskilled workers. Today, less than 8% of the jobs in America use unskilled labor. With the number of unskilled jobs decreasing each year, we find that employers are demanding that employees be trained.

Another reason why education is so necessary is that jobs available 40 years ago just do not exist today. Jobs that we recognize today as career jobs will not exist 25 years from now.

The need for a Community College exists for those persons who do not want to attend a 4-year college or university. At the present time, only about 30% of the graduating seniors, on a national average, attend a 4-year college or university. There are many occupations that do not require 4-year college training and many graduating seniors do not want 4 years of college training. At the present time, this large group of people represents about 70% of our population. Community Colleges in Michigan, as defined by the Legislature, permit communities to operate the kind of program they need.

City Police Issue Four Traffic Tickets

The above persons have appeared or will appear before Justice Olin Williamson.

Wayne Michael Hayes, 18, and James Jorgenson, 19, both of Grayling, were charged by City Police with unlawful driving away of a motor vehicle without authority but without intent to steal. The act was committed on February 2, and the two were arrested February 3rd. They appeared in Justice Court before Justice Olin Williamson February 4th. Both pleaded guilty to the above charges and both were given 30 days in jail and $60 fine and costs, with an additional 30 days if fine and costs were not paid.

The program will begin at 8 p. m. with a promenade of the Queens. This will be followed by the evening gown competition, swim suit competition, and talent competition. Five judges, three men and two women, well qualified and with diversified backgrounds, all living at least one hundred miles from Grayling, have been chosen to make the Miss Michigan Winter Sports Queen selection. They are to announce the names of the three semi-finalists who will be asked personality questions. The announcement of the runner-up will be made and finally the name of the winner will be revealed.

Why, and what are we going to do about it? Friends of the Library will hold a discussion on crime at their February meeting Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the library. All adults are invited to the meeting.

Our librarians report an increased book circulation of 400 during January 1966 over January 1965, with an average of 30 new borrowers a month. Two hundred fifty more books have been borrowed from the Grand Traverse Area Federation and are ready for circulation, as well as 30 LP records.

Consumers To Spend $9 Million

Consumers Power Company will invest $9,000,000 during 1966 in its Northwest division—a 5,700 square mile area of northwestern Lower Michigan — on projects to expand and improve electric service.

Bob D. Hilly, Northwest division manager for the company, made the announcement. His headquarters are at Traverse City.

Mr. Hilly said major projects to be completed during the year include the extensions of lines and services to add approximately 1,800 new customers to the company's system.

Other projects listed by him include construction of a major high voltage transmission line, of 138,000 volts capacity, 35 miles long, connecting the Westford substation to the Boardman substation near Traverse City. This will involve, also, the expansion of the Boardman substation, with both projects to be completed in 1967.

Expansion of the Higgins Lake substation, which supplies a number of smaller substations in that general area, will also take place, resulting in an improved power supply situation for the communities of Grayling, Marquette, Gerish and Houghton Heights as well as the Higgins Lake area.

Construction of the 70,000-kilowatt Gaylord peaking plant continues. Mr. Hilly said, with completion of that facility due this spring, The Gaylord plant will be used only at times of highest power demand, or in cases of emergency, to help meet the power needs of the northern part of the Lower Peninsula.

Mr. Hilly said the division's construction program is part of the company's state-wide expansion and improvement program in which Consumers Power is investing a record $134,000,000 this year. The company has 950,000 electric customers and 700,000 natural gas customers in a combined service area which encompasses all but one of the 68 counties of Michigan's Lower Peninsula.

Jean-Pierre Filipinetti, driver of a $14,000 Mercedes, test-drove a '66 Ford.

His opinion: Ford rides quieter.

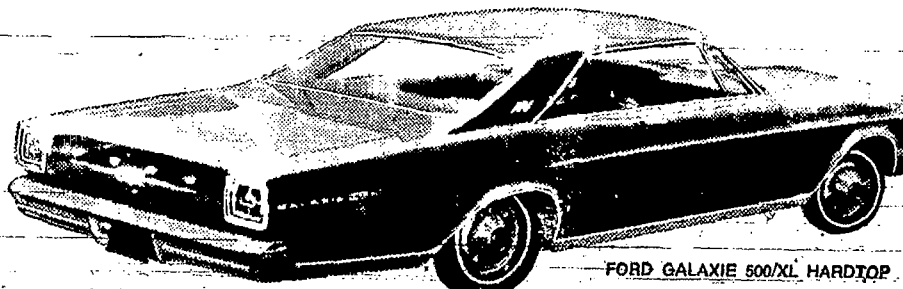

Ford's Quiet Man here he discusses a '66 Ford 4-Door LTD with Jean-Pierre Filipinetti at the castle which houses the famed Filipinetti collection of over 80 classic autos.

"It's incredible," said M. Filipinetti, "the Ford is quieter."

"The quiet, it's tremendous," continued M. Filipinetti, "it's incredible that you could build a car so luxurious as this at such a price." Ford's amazing quietness is the result of deep-down quality and engineering excellence.

And Ford for '66 offers more engineering magic. Optional new Stereo-Sonic Tape System that turns your Ford into a concert hall. A Exclusive Magic Doorgate for wagons swings out like a door for people and down like a tailgate for cargo. A Safety/Convenience Control Panel option - one button locks all doors, lights warn when fuel's low or a door's ajar, and remind you to fasten seat belts. Quiet test a '66 Ford soon.

1966 - Year Of Decision

The cover of the January 10, 1966 issue of U. S. News & World Report provides, in itself, a revealing capsule summary of the problems that confront this nation today. The heading is "1966: Year of Decision." Beneath this are a series of potent questions: All-Out War? Bigger Draft? Higher Taxes? New Controls? Brakes on the Boom?

None of these questions, it is clear, can be fully and finally answered now. But all of them—along with others—are of urgent concern to the government and the people of this nation. There certainly is irony in the fact that, in the face of what is generally described as the most materially prosperous period the country has ever known, we are bedeviled with unsolved and ever-changing problems of the utmost moment.

The war in Viet Nam overshadows everything else. No one can foresee its end. The President and his top aides, along with the principal statesmen of friendly foreign governments, have offered the enemy every opportunity for fair and even-handed negotiation. The unflinching answer has been refusal—except on totally unacceptable terms which would make a total communist takeover of Viet Nam a certainty. And U. S. News quotes a senior American officer as saying: "My private opinion is that even if everyone concerned agreed today to end the war in Viet Nam, it couldn't be accomplished by the end of 1966. The reason lies in the way the Communist Oriental mind operates." That mind is willing to spend endless time in haggling over every detail, no matter how minor it may be.

As the magazine also points out, "Future of the boom at home will relate to the course of the war." If the war continues to be stepped up, the number of men drafted, even now at high levels, must be greatly increased. The forces behind continued and increased inflation will become ever more powerful. It is possible that a tax increase may prove to be unavoidable. As of now, there is no evidence that wage and price controls are contemplated—but it is a subject of discussion in some quarters.

Mr. Johnson's honeymoon with Congress was more intense and longer lasting than is usually the case. The first session gave him almost everything he wanted and in some cases authorized even broader and more costly programs than he requested. But, as that session moved toward its end, there were signs of restiveness. There was a feeling that matters were getting out of hand. That feeling is bound to be greater this season. There will be more opposition to the welfare programs—more fear that the deficit situation is reaching emergency proportions. There will be a tendency to go slow, to take stock, to wait and see.

Then, with all the House seats and a third of the Senate seats at stake next November, there will be plenty of politicking. The Republicans hope to win back some of the House seats they lost last time—it is mathematically impossible for them to make any significant headway in the Senate. The Democrats knowing that, historically, the party in power always loses ground in an off-year will fight hard to hold what they have. Yes—it's a year of decision, at home and abroad.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

February 11, 1943

Last Friday on the local court Grayling's Green Wave added another to their string of victories when they outscored a scrappy Houghton Lake team 25-10. This week Grayling's squad will travel to Houghton Lake to play a return match. In the preliminary the Reserves tangled with a team from Frederic and easily emerged the victors by a score of 30-7.

A campaign for enlistment of volunteers for the Forest Fire Fighters Service, a new branch of the O. C. D. program, was announced this week by Clayton McDonnell, local representative of the O. C. D. and Conservation Officer Clarence Roberts. Recognizing the importance of timber products in war industry and at the same time faced with a critical shortage of manpower in preventing and suppressing fire in the forested areas of Michigan the O. C. D. is cooperating with the Michigan Department of Conservation and the Forest Service in recruiting and training volunteer groups in each county in preparation for any crisis that may arise during the approaching forest fire season.

Michael John Sheehy's first birthday was celebrated Tuesday with a family dinner at his home. He seemed to sense the fact that he was the guest of honor and displayed his best manners. The dinner table was centered with a birthday cake guarded with red, white and blue candles.

Mrs. William McLeod entertained the Danish Junior Aid Society at the home of her mother, Mrs. Albert Roberts Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Schoonover returned Saturday from Ft. Benning, Ga., where they had spent a couple of weeks visiting their daughter and son-in-law Maj. and Mrs. William Tufts.

It was when a young man of 19 in 1876 that Frank R. Deckrow came to Michigan with a party of hunters, from Maine. This was a wild country then. White pine was considered the only valuable timber. Hardwood could be sold only for firewood, which was the fate of many presumed useless woods, gorgeous birdseye maple, ironwood and elm. To the north and east of Grayling a vast tract of land was sold on a white pine estimate. All other woods were thrown in as of no value. Deer were not too plentiful because of the big lanky timber wolves weighing 40 to 50 pounds. Many badger coamed the hillsides. Owls were barn owls with the big screech. A few eagles came regularly nesting in the more lofty tree tops. Ravens were here too. There were part-ridge and spruce hens. The old Wakeley bridge, a couple bends below the present bridge, was built by Dan Waldron from logs taken from the 40 acres he bought there for only $32. Charles Nickols bought four acres where the Fr. Esper home now is for a watch. He sold it to Mr. Deckrow for a shot gun and there Mr. Deckrow built the first hunting camp on the river in this county. Tom Wakeley, a sheriff in the nineties, bought land on both sides of the river and lived there many years. George Cheney had been given a fourth section of land by the railroad, as was their custom, for the purpose of starting a town, towns and railroads being necessary for the development of both. Pere Cheney was a thriving place with a hotel, the Stuart Hut general store, Jacobs saw mill and a school. In order to get trade, Mr. Hut had built a road across the plains to a settlement near the Wakeley Bridge. 1877 saw many settlers surrounding Pere Cheney, clearing for and building homes. The Gus O'Dells, Silbys, Johnsons, Tazards, Perrys and Julius Richards, Moons, Culvers, Goodales, Ostranders, Parkers, John Wilcox, Wilsons and the Henry Funeks. Laur built a second saw mill. Con-jey a store and Sewells a hotel. The railroad went only to Gaylord until about 1880. The Metcalfs settled south of Cheney and Mr. Deckrow married Miss Eleanor Metcalf. They, in 1880 moved to Grayling, cleared the jackpine from the lot and built where the Philip Moran home now is.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McEvers and children of Bay City were at their home at Lake Margrethe Sunday. Returning they were accompanied by their son, Ted, who had spent the week here the guest of Jerry McClain. The boys had great sport fishing thru the ice on the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sorenson of Lansing spent the weekend at their home here. The former is employed at the Nash Defense plant there.

Mrs. Stuart Jones will be returning to her home in Muskegon at the end of this week after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McNeven and sister, Mrs. Clare Smith for two weeks.

Word has just been received that Pvt. Robert R. Welsh has been transferred from St. Petersburg, Fla., to Denver, Colorado, where he has been assigned to Lowry Field for a course in Aerial Photography.

We understand that Bill Powell says he has been here many years but last Sunday was the first time they came anywhere near to becoming snowed in. It actually was necessary to burrow through the snow in order to get to and from their home, which is on the shore of Lake Margrethe.

Miss Yvette Stephan of Ypsilanti and brother Jay of Detroit were Grayling over the weekend. They were met here by their mother Mrs. Ted Stephan who came from Munising where she and Mr. Stephan are spending the winter. Mrs. Stephan accompanied them to Detroit for a couple of weeks visit.

When Mrs. Floyd McClain who resides at Lake Margrethe wanted to visit her neighbor, Mrs. William Powell, Sunday, she first was obliged to shovel the snow for one hour before reaching the Powell home. By that time the snow-pile was much above the heads of the two ladies. These are certainly pioneer days as far as snow is concerned this winter.

Mrs. Adolph Peterson and daughter Mrs. William Hoffman drove to Mt. Pleasant Tuesday to visit. Miss Natalie Ann Peterson. Mrs. Hoffman went to visit her sister before leaving Wednesday for St. Petersburg, Fla., where she will join her husband who is stationed there in the coast guard. Tova Peterson of Big Bay who was visiting here accompanied them to Mt. Pleasant.

Guy Peterson of Big Bay, bookkeeper for the Kerry & Hanson interests at that place, is in Grayling on business this week for the company and also to visit relatives. He is accompanied by his son, Tova, who leaves next week Wednesday for Fort Sheridan to serve in the U. S. Army. Tova's twin brother Guy is studying for the priesthood at St. Lawrence Seminary, Mt. Calvary, Wis.

Donald R. Babbitt, son of Mrs. Reuben S. Babbitt, has recently been commissioned a first lieutenant. He has been in Texas for preliminary training and on January 29 was assigned to the Savannah Ordnance Department Proving Ground in Illinois. Lt. Babbitt served in World War I when he reached the rank of Corporal. Although he had a good position in Berwyn, Ill., he decided his country could use him and so enlisted again. His wife and 12 year old son reside in Berwyn.

Leon Babbitt of Newberry and his brother Peter who is on coast guard duty on Lake Superior, are spending fifteen days visiting their mother, Mrs. Reuben S. Babbitt. Mrs. John Selesky left Wednesday night for Roswell, N. M., to visit Mr. Selesky who is stationed

Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce
Memo: To the People of Crawford County.
From: Sal Truettner, President
Subject: Duties of the Chamber.
One of the duties of the Chamber and we think a big one, is the promotion of Winter Sports in Crawford County. A long time ago Grayling was the only one in this section. Snow trains came into town and hundreds of people poured off the trains. (Some had to be poured back on).
The big attraction then was the toboggans and especially "Suicide Sal". We were "IT" and had everything our own way. That day is gone. Every community that has a patch of snow the size of a 9x12 rug now has its own winter sports. So we must promote what we have to offer, namely three wonderful winter resorts. Every one can't belong to a plush and exclusive ski club and we in this area have something great for those who can't. This is evident by the bus loads of youngsters that come back year after year. Also the families that are repeats each year. This brings business to our community which is sadly needed during the slow winter months. The Chamber calls ski conditions for all 3 parks in to the Avalanche. Thursday, conditions of our parks are called in to Gaylord which in turn relays this along with other parks to WJR Detroit. Each Thursday the Chamber mails ski conditions to WXYZ TV Detroit.
If some of you have not visited these parks lately, take some time off and go see them. You'll be surprised and pleased at what you see.

GHS Students To Attend "Macbeth" At Bay City

Approximately fifty G. H. S. students will attend the dramatic presentation of "Macbeth" at Bay City High School on Monday, February 14, at 7:30 p. m.

Clarence Murphy, director of the production, is recognized as one of the outstanding Shakespearean stage-directors in the state. In lieu of the required thesis for his Master of Arts degree in speech, Mr. Murphy was allowed to produce one of Shakespeare's plays. He has continued to present one of the English Bard's dramas each year. Schools from throughout the state are invited to view the productions. This year's play, one of William Shakespeare's greatest tragedies, is especially appropriate, since our Senior English Literature and speech students have studied it as part of their required course-work. It is hoped that our students will gain an appreciation of what can be done in the field of drama by a well equipped drama department.

Mrs. Dorothy Feldhauser, Mrs. Harold Dykema, Mrs. Evelyn Klein, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Minor will accompany the group to Bay City.

GHS Students To Attend "Macbeth" At Bay City

Approximately fifty G. H. S. students will attend the dramatic presentation of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" at Bay City. The school will be on Monday, February 14, at 7:30 p. m. Clarence Murphy, director of the production, is recognized as one of the outstanding Shakespearean stage directors in the state. In lieu of the required thesis for his Master of Arts degree in speech, Mr. Murphy was allowed to produce one of Shakespeare's plays. He has continued to present one of the English Bard's dramas each year. Schools from throughout the state are invited to view the productions. This year's play, one of William Shakespeare's greatest tragedies, is especially appropriate, since our Senior English Literature and speech students have studied it as part of their required course work. It is hoped that our students will gain an appreciation of what can be done in the field of drama by a well equipped drama department.

Mrs. Dorothy Feldhauser, Mrs. Harold Dykema, Mrs. Evelyn Klein, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Minor will accompany the group to Bay City.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the hospital staff, especially Dr. Dosch and the nurses for my fine care, my gratitude to the quick thinking classmates who got me to the hospital so quickly, my teachers and friends for visits and gifts, parents of friends who were so thoughtful cards and gifts, and kind and all others who sent.
